

A STRIKE PROBABLE

On the Lehigh Valley and the Jersey Central Railroads.

New York, April 18.—The Herald says: A strike on the Lehigh Valley and Jersey Central railroads may be ordered this week by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers on account of coal trains having been withdrawn. The reluctance of the brotherhood to adopt the extreme measure of strikes is well known that hopes are entertained that the existing differences will be adjusted without any "tie up" taking place.

The course of action to be pursued by the engineers will be decided at Wednesday night's meeting in Jersey City. Well informed people say that if a strike is ordered it will be likely to involve the entire Philadelphia & Reading systems. Not only the engineers, but all the employees of these roads are grumbling over a reduction which has been made in the freight train service. A number of freight trains that had hauled coal from the mines in Pennsylvania have been taken off, and the machine shop employees in Easton have been put on half time. This action is an outgrowth of the recent acquisition of coal mines by the Philadelphia & Reading, and in pursuance of a scheme they sought to legalize in the New Jersey legislature they are now restricting the output of coal for the purpose of increasing its price. The men who have been laid off through the abandonment of this coal traffic are clamoring to have the trains put back so they will be employed.

SULLIVAN SOBER

Talks With Much Less Bluster than Sullivan Drunk.

CINCINNATI, O., April 18.—Last night a heavy rain gave John L. Sullivan a light audience at the theatre.

Chatting behind the scenes he said: "I am a teetotaler now. I have not drunk a drop in five months, except one week of the Fitzsimmons-Maher fight in St. Paul, and I drank a little that week. When I begin training I will not take a drink." "I will begin training about June 30th. I would like Bay St. Louis if I have my choice. However, my training quarters will be decided upon by my backers. I will train in a quiet place and out of convenient reach of too many people."

"I have not the slightest idea who will look after my training. It will not be Muldoon, for I will not train like I did for Kilrain. I took long walks; this time I will not walk so much. The principal feature of my training will be skipping the rope. I think it the very best kind of exercise for a pugilist. It is an exercise that keeps arms and legs going, and your chest is brought into play as well. Besides I will have a big ten pound ball to toss and a fighting bag to hit. I will also play foot ball."

"Corbett is a clever boxer, and I presume a nice fellow. Of course I will win and win easily. I don't want to appear in the light of a blusterer, but I look upon that purse and $10,000 stake as very easy money."

BASE BALL

Only One Game Played—Rain at All Other Points.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 18.—Brooklyn bunched ten of its thirteen hits in the fifth and sixth innings to-day, which, with two errors by Clements and two bases on balls, yielded ten runs. With the exception of a base on balls the visitors played without an error of any kind. Attendance 2,550. Score: Philadelphia, 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 4 Brooklyn, 0 1 5 6 0 0 0 31.

Earned runs, 4 and 6. Pitchers, Epper, Thornton and Foutz. Errors, 2 and 6. Hits, 15 and 13. Umpire, Hurst.

St. Louis, Mo., April 18.—The St. Louis-Cleveland game was postponed on account of rain. Two games will be played to-morrow.

Omaha, Neb., April 18.—No game—wet grounds.

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 18.—No game—wet grounds.

Columbus, Ohio, April 18.—Columbus-Toldeo game postponed on account of rain.

Washington, D. C., April 18.—New York-Washington game postponed on account of rain.

Baltimore, Md., April 18.—Boston-Baltimore game postponed on account of rain.

Louisville, Ky., April 18.—Louisville-Pittsburgh game postponed—rain.

THOROUGHBREDS BURNED.

A Barn Struck by Lightning—Famous Race Horses Consumed.

JEFFERSONVILLE, IND., April 18.—The large barn on the extensive stock farm of Elihu Carr, near Charleston, Ind., was struck by lightning at 4 o'clock this morning, and the building, valued at $2,000, together with a stock of thoroughbred horses valued at $80,000, were consumed. Among the horses burned to death were Kentucky Ruler, the property of Leslie Carr, valued at $25,000, and Jewell, belonging to Dr. Williams, of Union, valued at $5,000.

A Probable Lynching.

FISKING, Ky., April 18.—Last Thursday Lucy Price, aged fourteen, was brutally assaulted by two negroes. She managed to make her way home, and informed her mother of what had happened. She continued to grow worse, and yesterday morning she died. She was delicious most of the time, but during consciousness partially described her assailants. Last night a mulatto answering the description given of one of the men was arrested. The citizens are greatly excited over the affair, and should the prisoner prove to be guilty he will surely receive summary justice.

Crops Flooded.

WHITEHALL, ILLS., April 18.—The heaviest rain ever known here fell last night. The Hartwell levee, which protected several thousand acres of farming land mostly planted in wheat, broke and the whole country is now under water. All the country bridges were swept away and all bottom lands submerged which means that many thousands of acres of wheat has been destroyed. The aggregate loss will be very large.

The Destructive Cyclone.

GETTYSBURG, OK., April 18.—Report from the western part of the Creek nation says a cyclone passing through that section of the country a night or two ago leveling over a dozen houses and many barns, killing three people and a large number of horses and cattle.

Not Guilty.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., April 18.—At 10:30 this morning the jury in the case of Wm. E. Woodruff, ex-state treasurer, charged with embezzling state funds and converting them to his own use, returned a verdict of not guilty.

A Terrible Accident.

BALLINGER, TEX., April 18.—Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Dr. Younger and Mrs. Shuler were buggy riding, and while crossing the railroad, were struck by an engine, which smashed the vehicle, knocking both ladies out, killing Mrs. Dr. Younger and fatally injuring Mrs. Shuler.

A STREET R. R. DIRECTOR

Criticizes the Statements of Ex-Superintendent Harrington, Printed Yesterday.

As the Editor of the Intelligence.

Sir:—I have read the article in your paper this morning of Superintendent Harrington, in which many unwise and incorrect things are uttered, which are not calculated to benefit any one. Rash statements have been recently published concerning the men under his employ. Now, the men who employ him, i. e., the board of directors, are recklessly criticized. The superintendent came to us a stranger, and has received, I believe, kind and indulgent treatment from every member of the board. Notwithstanding this, he joins in with the balance of humanity and abuses the poor street car people.

It was a strange act, an unkind act, to write a lengthy address to the board tendering his resignation, and offer the same to the public before it could possibly reach the board for its action. After discharging the seven men, the superintendent says, "I found that same day that there would be trouble, and I saw and talked with six individual members of the boards of directors of the two companies. Each and all said they would stand by me." This statement is untrue.

The statement that he was going to effect a saving of $100 or $200 per week by discharging the seven men is disproven by the fact that he had already employed three new men and wanted an additional number.

The board of directors is probably as capable and as anxious to take care of the business interests of the company as Mr. Harrington, and have fully as much at stake.

I have occupied your space, Mr. Editor, to correct only part of the misstatements of Mr. Harrington, and have avoided criticising his management or conduct as a street railway superintendent, but may desire to do so later on.

Wheeling, April 18. Director.

BELLAIRE.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

The meeting of the Congressional committee at the Windsor hotel yesterday resulted in Hon. C. J. Weems, of St. Clairsville, and Samuel B. Pipes, of Barnesville, ratifying the action of the former committee as to holding the convention at Steubenville on the 24th of May, but the primaries in each county are to be held as the county committees of each may direct. In Harrison and Jefferson counties they are called for the 14th of May, and the central committee of this county will meet next Saturday to issue the call for the county convention and for the primaries for delegates to the congressional convention at the same time. Mr. Weems had authority from Monroe and Harrison counties to ratify the call yesterday. He is a very careful and attentive member of any committee and the result in this county last fall shows that he understands the business of politics thoroughly. He has had the congressional lever for some time, but is not a candidate this year and there is some curiosity as to the position he occupies in the matter.

Vena Garrard, an irritable and eccentric maiden of several summers, who lives on Gravel hill, has frequently frightened people by handling a loaded gun as if she meant to kill. Sunday evening she shot at a boy named Lester Rogers and was arrested and taken before the mayor, who fined her $50 and costs and sentenced her to ninety days in jail. She said she wanted to go, as they were annoying the life out of her.

The school children of the parish presented St. John's Catholic church with a beautiful statue of the Sacred Heart. It was made in Paris and will be used in the new church building to be erected by that congregation here. Father Fitzgerald finds a good deal of pleasure in showing the present to visitors, as it is a real work of art.

The Bellaire Boiler and Bridge company elected Edward Jones, H. C. Lichtenberger, Louis Grella, Charles Franka and J. A. Greenfield as the board of directors for the ensuing year. This company has just closed the first year in business and is encouraged at the prospect.

A Mrs. Lowellen died at her home in the first ward Sunday from blood poisoning and was buried yesterday. There was a good deal of ugly talk going around about the poisoning probably being intentional, but investigation shows this all to have been a mistake.

Two saloonkeepers were arraigned before the mayor yesterday, one for violating the 11 o'clock ordinance Saturday night and the other for Sunday selling. The first was fined $20 and costs and the other $25 and costs.

County Treasurer Frank B. Archer, of St. Clairsville, and John W. Crooks, of Martin's Ferry, took in the Republican committee meeting at the Windsor yesterday.

L. S. Woodbridge, John Smith and others, of the Bellaire window glass works, will build a factory in the Indiana gas fields if bonus enough is offered.

Frank Arnett and Charles Zimmer had a dispute over 25 cents which resulted in the former being fined $2 and costs, $5, 50, and the latter $1 and costs, $4, 60.

The School Board organized last night with George W. Yost as President, Charles Henry, sr., as Vice President, and H. A. Lichtenberger as Clerk.

It is surmised that all of the police will be confirmed by Council to-night, though a big fight is being made against Officer Strobel's confirmation.

The congressional delegates from this city will not be yielded to any candidate without a contest. It will be an earnest, active contest, too.

Grammal Bridgman is out on bail to appear before the probate court on the 24 of May for kicking in the door at Nora McMillin's home.

The infant daughter of Tony Williams, the Cleveland & Pittsburgh engineer, who lost his wife two weeks ago, will be buried to-day.

Common pleas court will resume in this county next week, and the grand jury begins business one week from this morning.

The Easter ball at the Turner hall last night was a very elaborate affair and there was much good cheer on tap.

President Luke Gavin, of the city council, will announce his standing committees at the meeting this evening.

Emil Schmidt, who was arrested for keeping open his saloon after hours, was last evening fined $5 and costs.

The Salvation Army brass band will hold a meeting here to-morrow evening, to be addressed by Major Stillwell.

Ex-Marshall Shepherd and wife left yesterday on a pleasure jaunt to Cleveland.

Blood poisoned by diphtheria, the grip, typhoid fever, scarlet fever, etc., is made pure and healthy by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

AFTER TWENTY YEARS.

Mr. Frank Curtis States His Case in Full.

The Following is His True Statement in Detail.

"Twenty years is a long time, is it not? But it is at least that long since that my trouble dates back, that I have carried the burden of misery within myself."

MR. FRANK CURTIS.

The speaker was Mr. Frank Curtis, of No. 1165 High street, Wheeling. "I do not remember the exact date when my trouble began, but it dates back about twenty years, as near as I can tell anything about it," continued Mr. Curtis. "My father says I was run over by a wagon on the streets of Baltimore, when I was a small child. I almost died from the effects of my injuries, but, on regaining my health again, I was left deaf in both ears, remaining thus until November 1, 1891, when I called on Drs. Copeland & Bell and placed myself under their care. I had continual ringing and roaring, and sounds in my ears similar to that of a train of cars, and at times a terrible pain in my head. "Catarrh finally set in, and my nose would stop up so tight that I was compelled to breathe through my mouth to get air. Constant dripping of mucus from my head into my throat, and my banking and spitting most of the time. Two years ago my nose and throat got so bad, I would frequently cough so hard I would spit blood as a result. Had no appetite, and what I did eat disagreed with me, causing terrible pains in my stomach, bowels and back. I grew weak and emaciated. I was hardly able to work, would feel more tired in the morning than the night before on going to bed. I can now eat a good, square meal and sleep, and at a hard day's work with pleasure, which was a continual drag heretofore; can hear an ordinary conversation and can hearily recommend any one suffering as I have done, to try those eminent specialists at No. 1121 Main street, and be relieved."

The above statement can be easily verified at 1165 High street, Wheeling.

DOCTORS COPELAND & BELL have located permanent offices at 1121 Main street, Wheeling, W. Va., where they treat with success all curable cases. Office hours—9 to 11 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m., and 7 to 9 p. m. Sundays 9 a. m. to 12 m., and 1 to 3 p. m. Specialties—Catarrh and Diseases of the Eye, Ear, Throat and Lungs. Consultation free. Address all mail to Drs. COPELAND & BELL, 1121 Main street, Wheeling, W. Va.

Treatment including medicine, $5 a week. The office of Drs. COPELAND & BELL is not connected in any way with any other offices in Wheeling. PLEASE REMEMBER THIS.

Accidents and Incidents in that Thriving City—Personal and Industrial.

The Union cornet band will give a concert at the Opera House to-morrow night. Among the features will be John Huml, flute solo with orchestral accompaniment; Prof. J. H. Meister, clarinet solo with variations; E. E. Applegarth, tuba solos with variations; Lone Star Quartette, Dr. D. J. Heinlein and E. J. Contine, guitar duets; Lon Englemeyer, vocal solo, and Hon. Albert Hains, recitation. The concert will be first-class.

Rev. H. N. Campbell, pastor of the Presbyterian church, is quite sick. He was obliged to go to bed a few days ago with something like nervous prostration, which baffled the physicians and developed into typhoid fever yesterday. His brother, Dr. Campbell, of Cleveland, and his mother are at his bedside.

Word was received yesterday that gas had been struck at that well being drilled on the ground donated to the Northwood glass company at Elwood, Pa., the pressure being 200 pounds. The well is near the office door.

Mr. Henry Elliott and Miss Inez Linn, two popular young people of Martin's Ferry, were married last night at the M. E. parsonage by Rev. I. S. Winters. The attendants were Mr. Dan Ellis and Miss Sadie Elliott.

Arrangements are being made for the observance of Arbor Day by the schools. The exercises will consist of singing, recitations and tree planting, and will be held on Friday, April 23.

Messrs. Harry Northwood, Charles Holling and George Pownall were in Wellsburg yesterday to inspect the gas turnarounds in the glass factories at that place.

Mr. Andy Maden, who has been unable to work the past ten years, has opened a confectionery on Second street, near the city building.

The concert and ball of the Martin's Ferry Men's chorist at their hall last night was a success in every sense of the word.
